We are the temporal trustees and are held accountable for our stewardship. The call of a needy world demands hearty response—stewardship opportunity. # AN APPRECIATION

Of Dr. L. W. Goebel, President Emeritus of the Church

TO say it with literal accuracy, Dr. L. W. Goebel was not the first, but the second, President of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

But for all practical purposes he has been the first President of our Church.

During the period 1934-38, when my own revered teacher, the Rev. George W. Richards, D.D., LL.D., Th.D., was President of the Church, the Evangelical and Reformed Church as a living, working, witnessing entity, was still only a dream. The foundation in structural theory was being laid; and that was a vital pre-requisite if the dream was to come true, and that it did come true is the best testimony to the wisdom of the leadership with which we were blessed during those four years.

But when Dr. Goebel succeeded to the Presidency in 1938, the time had come to take the theory which had been so carefully wrought out on paper and translate it into administrative, legislative and functional actuality.

That has been the one, magnificent, all-encompassing achievement of the fifteen years of Dr. Goebel's administration.

He came to the Presidency when yet the "E's" and the "R's" knew very little of each other. But he held them steady with his oft-repeated assurance that the day would come—as come it has—when we would no longer think of each other in terms of our diverse backgrounds and traditions but in terms of our living fellowship and oneness in Christ.

He came to the Presidency when every administrative procedure was an act without precedent to follow, when every appointment and parliamentary move in General Synod or in General Council had to be made with double carefulness, when every decision as to program had to reflect as fully as humanly possible the respective interests and loyalties of the two former communions now being

I have served on the General Council during the whole fifteen years of Dr. Goebel's presidency, and I have yet to see an instance when I did not feel that he leaned over backward to be utterly fair, while yet firm and courageous as he led the Church into an ever-deepening experience of mission and unity.

He came to the Presidency at the beginning of the very decade in which were laid the foundations for the National and World Councils of Churches; and such is his ecumenical spirit and churchmanship that, under his leadership, our Evangelical and Reformed Church has achieved an enviable place and influence in both these instruments of Christian unity.

I do not know which areas of the Christian mission were closest his heart during his years in the pastoral ministry; but I have marvelled at the way in which he appeared to keep ever within his purview all the great areas of Christian concern and endeavor—missions at home and abroad, social action, evangelism, Christian education, life enlistment, the temporal as well as spiritual interests of our pastors, our homes and hospitals, the crying needs of a stricken world—again and again he would make a suggestion or raise a question which reflected his awareness of the whole Christian mission.

Perhaps he was at his best, Dr. Richards remarked to me recently, when he led the devotions at the opening of each session of the General Council, in the lessons he chose to read from the Scriptures, and in the scope and depth of the free prayers he offered. Surely, during these fifteen years we have been led by one who was, in deed and in truth a man of God.

AN INTRODUCTION

Of Dr. James E. Wagner, President of the Church

AT Tiffin, Ohio, June 19, General Synod elected as the third President of the Evangelical and Reformed Church Dr. James E. Wagner, Pastor of St. Peter's Church, Lancaster, Pa., and, for the past three years, first Vice-President of the Church. Dr. Wagner, therefore, is no stranger to the membership of our denomination. When the Constitution of the Church was adopted in 1938 he was elected to the General Council and has continuously served on this highest administrative body. His facile pen has furnished many articles for The Messenger. Moreover, he has written a number of pamphlets among which perhaps the most widely read is the one appearing under the title, "So you are a Consistory Man."

A graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, Dr. Wagner accepted a call to St. Peter's Church, Lancaster, Pa. It has remained his only charge. Under his devoted and able leadership this church has grown into one of the most effective in the city of Lancaster. At present it is in the process of erecting a beautiful new house of worship. He comes to the high office to which he has been called with the background of a long experience as minister of a congregation and a shepherd of souls. There will be ample opportunity to draw upon this experience as pastors and lay people seek his counsel and advice as a pastor unto pastors and as a shepherd of our portion of that flock of which Christ is the Good Shepherd.

Those who have been most intimately associated with Dr. Wagner during the formative as well as the later years of the history of our Church know that he brings to his new responsibilities a deep consecration and a sincere devotion to the God-given tasks which are ours. It is our judgment that he will seek, with all the energy and the ability with which he has been endowed, to foster the evangelistic outreach of the Church, both in so far as this means the winning of individuals to an acceptance of the gospel message of reconciliation and redemption as well as the establishment of new centers through which this gospel will be preached to men in at present unchurched areas in our country and throughout the world. As Chairman of General Council's Committee on Promotion and Correlation he has had a rare opportunity to become familiar with the program of every Board, Commission and agency of the Church. This experience has been a most fortunate preparation for his service as an advisory member of all these departments of our life and work.

During his incumbency as Vice-President of the Church Dr. Wagner has been a member of our delegation to the National Council of Churches and of its General Board. His native ability and his wise judgment have been quickly recognized and he has been invited to serve as a member of important committees of this interdenominational body. The ecumenical interests of the Evangelical and Reformed Church will continue to be fostered under his leadership and we are convinced that our interdenominational and world contacts will be strengthened and enriched.

The General Synod of Tiffin has effected many changes and innovations in the program of our denomination. In order that the work of the Church, as revised, may function effectively, its administrative head will require the wisdom and strength and the enlightened judgment and Christian patience which only God can give. We know that he will ever seek such guidance.

As one who knows that the Evangelical and Reformed Church, despite all differences of individual opinion and judgment, is composed of congregations and pastors who have in the past demonstrated their readiness to participate heartily in the life and work of the Church, we bespeak for our successor in office this same consideration and consecrated cooperation. May God's blessings rest upon our Church and its new President, Dr. James E. Wagner.

Ordinations

ORDINATION is the solemn rite by which the Church bestows upon candidates, who must be at least twenty-one years of age, the full rights and privileges of Christian ministers. The following record included all ordinations that were reported to the Secretary of the Church up to August 31, 1953.

Ministers are reminded that the dates appearing in connection with their names in the Register of Ministers of the Year Book indicate the year of ORDINATION and not the year of GRADUATION from a seminary. In a number of instances these years are not identical.

FORM FOR BEQUESTS

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its Boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are encouraged and advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified individual. This is advisable because of the variations in State laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies. Otherwise, the intent of the testator may be defeated.

The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law. The following form for general bequests is suggested in the event that no lawyer is available for counsel:—

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of which Mr. F. A.

Keck, St. Louis, Missouri, is the treasurer, for the use of (insert here the particular cause which it is desired shall receive the bequest, or if no preference is had this clause in the will may be omitted) the sum of ..... Dollars, and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor."

In designating the beneficiary of a bequest, it is of the utmost importance that the testator or his counsel use the official title of the administrative body, and the correct name and location of the Board, institution or agency to be remembered.

The corporate titles of our Church Boards, agencies and institutions may be found on pages 36 and 37 of this Year Book.

Names and Stations of Missionaries

of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

THE following list contains the names and addresses of the missionaries representing the Church in the areas where we are represented. A substantial increase in the list over that of last year will be noticed.

The post office addresses of the ordained ministers as well as of the appointees will be found in the Register of Ministers. The names in italics after the post offices of addresses of lay ministers represent the stations at which they are working. These names are not part of the post office addresses. Such addresses of missionaries home on furlough as were known at the time of going to press are given in the Register of Ministers.

To God Alone Be The Glory!

JUNE 26, 1954 marks the twentieth anniversary of the organization of the Evangelical and Reformed Church—the consummation of the union of the Evangelical Synod of North America and the Reformed Church in the United States. With 396 official delegates participating in the celebration of the Holy Communion in Zion Church, Cleveland, Ohio, the uniting Churches pledged their troth and became one. This union remains unique among the unions of Protestantism, being based not upon statements of doctrine nor form of policy but upon mutual esteem and faith.

The union of the two Churches gave us the Evangelical and Reformed Church, a national Church, which today is constituted with 34 Synods, 2,744 congregations, having a membership of 752,144 in 38 states, the District of Columbia and four provinces of Canada.

Comparative statistics are always interesting and, in a measure at least, portray the developing program of the Church. The following summary is submitted on this anniversary observance:

	1940	1952	% INCREASE
Apportionment Paid .....	$ 853,027	$ 2,675,857	213.7
Total Benevolences .....	1,479,388	4,827,112	226.3
Congregational Expenses .....	9,200,625	26,198,021	184.6
Total Contributions .....	10,680,013	31,025,133	190.5
Church Membership .....	655,366	752,144	14.8
Church School Membership .....	509,662	486,119	—4.6

During the years, 1942-1952, our Church gave contributions to War Relief and World Service amounting to $6,401,502.

The occasion of the twentieth anniversary of our Church moves us to an expression of gratitude and thanksgiving for the blessings of God, the untiring services of our leaders and pastors, and the devotion and consecration of our members. Our irenic spirit, our leadership in the ecumenical cause, our advance in the grace of giving for the extension of the Kingdom through Kingdom Service, and for relief and spiritual rehabilitation through World Service, our growing zeal in the missionary enterprise, in Christian Education, in evangelism, in the cause of justice and peace—these are evidences of the indwelling, and guidance of the Holy Spirit. Under divine guidance our Church has "lengthened its cords and strengthened its stakes." May the God who has been the faithful guide and counsellor until now, continue to lift His countenance upon us and bless us! SOLI DEO GLORIA!

EDITOR'S NOTE—The above article is a copy of the text which appeared on the fourth page of the Church bulletin issued by the Department of United Promotion for Sunday, June 21, 1953, with several changes made in the text and statistics so as to conform to the later date and to incorporate some statistics which have since become available.

The Committee on Year Book sensed the appropriateness of devoting a page to this subject by way of helping to make the Church twentieth-anniversary conscious, in addition to whatever else may be planned by committees or other groups.

Corporate Titles of the Boards and Institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

HEREWITH are given the corporate or charter names, together with the headquarter addresses, of the Boards and institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. This information has been secured direct from the executives of these agencies by Dr. John W. Mueller, Counselor of the Church, and the editor of the Year Book in response to numerous requests from persons who had need of it in connection with writing wills or drawing up other legal papers.

In every instance the words "of the Evangelical and Reformed Church" should be added to the title. In cases where Boards or institutions are familiarly known by a popular name instead of by the corporate title this popular name is shown in parentheses. The addresses given are those of the executive offices of the Boards and institutions listed.

Deceased Ministers of the Church

WITH sadness and sincere regret we record the passing of fifty-eight of our ministers since the publication of the 1953 Year Book. Of this number seventeen were in active service, thirty-eight were in retirement and two were inactive. The sympathy of the entire Church go out to the loved ones who mourn their passing, and yet we know that they sorrow not as do those who have no hope. "They rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

Widows of Ministers

Evangelical and Reformed Church

Every effort has again been made to secure an accurate and complete list of the widows of ministers, together with their addresses. Inaccuracies, omissions, deaths, etc., should be reported to the office of Dr. Kerschner, 616 Schaff Bldg., 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa. (It is the editorial policy not to include widows whose status has been changed through re-marriage.)

Students for the Ministry

EIGHTY-FIVE men and two women were graduated from various theological schools in the spring and have entered upon the ministry in our own and other denominations. This was the largest simultaneous addition of new ministers in the history of the denomination. Of that number, sixty-six were graduated from our own three seminaries. The other schools represented in the group were the Hartford, McCormick and Union Theological Seminaries, and the Yale Divinity and Philadelphia Divinity Schools.

Most of the graduates have been assigned to places of service. At the time of going to press, the breakdown was as follows: pastors, 66; assistant pastors, 5; chaplains, 4; missionaries or in other service abroad, 3; missionaries in training, 2; serving in another denomination, 1; religious editor, 1; miscellaneous or unknown, 5.

The appended lists show the number of students for the ministry by synods. This information is gathered from the statistical reports submitted by the congregations. It must be understood that this does not mean that we actually have 690 enrolled in institutions of learning at present, but rather that the number includes all those who are at some stage of preparation or commitment for Christian life service. It will be noted that the number of those who have made some such commitment in the synods range from 2 to 52, and that only one synod had none to report. That this branch of our church work has had a steady growth is evidenced by the fact that the number of graduates in 1952 was 63, and that the totals of students listed in previous years were 582 in 1949; 618 in 1950, and 671 in 1951. The Department of Student Work of the Board of Christian Education and Publication under the leadership of Rev. Hartland H. Helmich has been a strong factor in this steady growth.

The following lists show the number reported by the respective synods:

SYNOD	STUDENTS	SYNOD	STUDENTS

Register of Ministers

As of September 9, 1953

The following list gives the name, post-office address, the place of theological preparation and the year of ordination (or licensure, if not ordained) of every minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. It contains, as nearly as possible all changes of addresses to date shown above. The Constitution of our Church and the actions of our judicatories make the Secretary of the Church responsible for all records of our ministers and congregations. That this register may be correct, every minister changing his address shall notify W. S. Kerschner, Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

Location of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the street location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and St. John's.

Please send notes of any errors immediately to W. S. Kerschner, Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

The Presidents OF THE THIRTY-FOUR SYNODS

THE president of a Synod shall have been a member of the Synod for not less than three years and a minister of the Church for not less than five years. . . . The term of office for the officers of the Synod shall be two years. After two full terms of office the president and vice-president shall not be eligible to succeed themselves." (By-Laws, Article 5, Section 57.)

The election of ten new presidents at the spring meetings of the synods represents an unusually large turnover. Two of the presidents are serving on a full time basis. However, the 1953 General Synod, in making a disposition of various recommendations in the report of the Study Committee, took action encouraging all synods having more than 9,000 members to elect full-time presidents. It also voted to encourage certain smaller synods to consider the advisability of constituting areas with the same executive; also, to encourage synods in the more heavily concentrated membership areas to study the realignment of Synods and to make recommendations to the 1956 General Synod meeting.

A Review of the 1952 Statistics

IT CAN be stated with confidence and satisfaction that the record of the congregational statistics for the year 1952 as shown in the following pages is more complete and accurate than for a number of years. The splendid measure of cooperation which was accorded by all concerned is reflected in the practically unanimous and accurate results obtained.

Out of the possible 2,740 congregational reports all but 70 were forwarded to the secretary's office. Of the 70 still outstanding 41 could be called impossible of securing for one reason or another. This leaves only 29 that could really be called delinquent, and if all the circumstances were known it is entirely probable that even some of these should not be so classified.

This total is all the more remarkable in light of the fact that at any given time we have no less than 230 vacant congregations. In the absence of a pastor and with scanty records available, it is easy to understand the difficulty that laymen must have when called upon to prepare the statistical report. For this reason forbearance must be felt and leniency shown.

Seventeen of the thirty-four synods attained the 100% goal in the matter of submitting statistical reports: Mercersburg, Pacific Northwest, Southern, Rocky Mountain, Reading, Northeast Ohio, Northwest Ohio, Magyar, South Illinois, Philadelphia, Northern, Lancaster, South Wisconsin, Lehigh, Texas, Susquehanna and East Pennsylvania. In addition to these, California, Iowa, Missouri Valley and South Indiana Synods completed their canvass but did not quite attain the 100% goal.

As is usually the case, hundreds of congregational reports showed discrepancies in the statistics which had to be adjusted. Most of them were due to the fact that pastors or congregational committees in preparing their reports failed to enter the correct figures for their communicant membership as of December 31, 1952, on the line just before the section on Accessions and Losses. This figure can always be found in the synodical statistical tables in the current number of the Year Book. It serves as the "spring-board" for the entire membership section of the report, and if some other figure is used an adjustment or correction must be made in the secretary's office. Synodical officers can render a worthwhile service by calling the attention of pastors and congregations to this important matter.

We have 2,539 ministers, of whom 1,832 are pastors. The latest count lists 2,744 congregations with a total communicant membership of 752,144. Using this figure as the basis the figures show that the per capita giving for benevolences in 1952 was $6.42 and for congregational expenses $34.83, or a grand total of $41.25. These figures compare favorably with $5.91, $33.63 and $39.54 in 1951.

Analyzing the membership growth for the year 1952 we note that the total accessions were 49,451 and the total losses 39,621, or a net gain of 9,830. These figures compare with 47,800, 40,696 and 7,104 respectively for the previous year. Substantial increases for 1952 were registered in the totals for benevolences, congregational expenses and values of parsonages and other church buildings and real estate. With few exceptions, the congregations filled in the new rubrics which appeared on the report blanks for the first time. According to the reports in hand both the Church School enrollment and the average attendance show substantial gains for the year 1952.

A summary of the accessions of members by synods reveals that 1,186 of the congregations registered no net accessions of members, and, 302 congregations did not have a single accession from any source! In spite of these rather startling figures, there were only three synods that showed a net loss in communicant membership.

The statistical report blank sent to every congregation again included the rubric "Students for the Ministry." A summary of the entries under this head reveals a total of 690. The synodical totals under this head ranged from zero to 52. However, this does not mean that we have this number actively pursuing theological studies at present. It probably means that we have 690 young men and women who are at some stage of serious commitment to Christian life service, and who with the proper encouragement and the guidance of the Holy Spirit plan to invest their lives and energies for Christ and the Church. Perhaps a better heading for this rubric might be "Committed to Christian Life Service."

EXPLANATION OF SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no statistical report for 1952, and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available.

These congregational statistics went to press early in July. Therefore, some of the pastors whose names appear are not the present incumbents. A more accurate and complete listing appears in the Rosters of the Synods.

Code for the first column: A indicates that the church is located in an area unit with a population of over 100,000; B, between 25,000 and 100,000; C, between 10,000 and 25,000; D, between 2,500 and 10,000; E, under 500; F, under 500, and probably in the open country.

With Wells' Direction

YOU CANNOT FAIL

in a Fund-Raising Program

When a church employs Wells Organizations to organize and direct its building fund program, that church remains a Wells client until its insured objective is reached. (Rarely are additional canvasses required, but they are directed by Wells without additional fee.)

Therefore your church cannot fail when it employs Wells to direct its fund-raising program. Moreover, ten out of eleven clients exceed their insured objectives on the first canvass, many raise more than 150% of their insured objectives.

Church leaders are invited to secure the counsel of Wells Organizations—without cost or obligation—before planning a major fund-raising program. Merely phone (collect) or write the nearest Wells office.

Behind the Insured Objective

Wells Organizations are dedicated exclusively to advising and assisting churches with their fund-raising programs—both building and budget. Wells methods are recognized as the most inexpensive, and spiritually constructive, of all organized fund-raising plans.

BENEVOLENCE IS THE HEART OF YOUR CHURCH BUDGET!

BUILD BENEVOLENCE BUDGETS!

The first organization of the church was for the purpose of Benevolence. Seven men were selected to look after the daily administration to the necessities of the widows.

The first general collection taken in the churches was to assist those who were impoverished by a famine.

The only definition or description of religion given in the New Testament has to do with Benevolence: "Pure religion and undefiled before God is this, to visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unspotted from the world." When He describes the gathering of all the nations before the throne, Jesus says the basis of separating the righteous from the unrighteous will be their BENEVOLENT RECORD. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these, My Brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Remembering it was the same Benevolent appeal—(II Cor. 8:10-11 Moffatt): "Go on with this enterprise, for you started it last year, you were the first not merely to do anything but to want to do anything.

Now carry it through, so that your readiness to take it up may be equalled by the way you carry it through."

YOUR WILL TO GIVE IS THEIR CHANCE TO LIVE

Our long-established Home has always depended on bequests and other estate gifts, and much of our expansion, remodeling and other major items of development have depended on this form of support. THE CHURCHES BENEVOLENT OFFERINGS SUPPLY ONLY A PART OF OUR DAILY LIVING COSTS! Write the following into your will:

"I hereby bequeath to the EVANGELICAL CHILDREN'S HOME (formerly German Protestant Orphans' Home), a Missouri corporation, 8240 St. Charles Rock Road, St. Louis 14, Missouri, and to its successors, the sum of _____ dollars to be used as the Board of Directors of said Home may direct."

SIGNED _____

Other gifts can be arranged, such as memorials, annuities and estate pledges by writing to the Superintendent.

AN ERROR

—in the thinking of many church committees and pastors is that no pipe organ can be purchased for less than $10,000.

The Clarity of the Clergy —

Judging by what the wild air waves are saying there exists a large audience who prefer to be mystified rather than edified. If they can't understand they appear to be ready to buy.

Clergymen look at things differently. They feel that to mystify is not to satisfy. So the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund delights to deal in simple facts and plain figures. What can't be understood shouldn't be bought. It points with pride to the growing fellowship of preachers who feel it is better to clarify than to mystify.

Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company

BURLINGTON IOWA

The Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company is a part of the great American institution of mutual insurance and at the same time it may be said that it is a part of the Evangelical and Reformed Church since it has confined its business within the boundaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church since its organization in 1889.

Mutual insurance has stood the test for 200 years. The Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company has also stood the test and has been growing steadily. It is a strong company. The financial statement reveals that the company has $517.00 in assets for every $100.00 in liabilities, which reflects a surplus position that is exceedingly strong.

The Board of Directors is composed of Evangelical and Reformed laymen who are ever on the alert to furnish Protection, Service, Safety and Savings for its policyholders.

PROTECTION. The company offers protection against Fire, Lightning, Extended Coverage. Extended Coverage includes Tornado, Cyclone, Windstorm, Hail, plus Explosion, Smoke from faulty operations of heating or cooking units connected with a chimney, Aircraft and Vehicles. To provide added protection all funds over and above our retentions are reinsured with good reliable reinsurance companies.

SAFETY. By writing the insurance within the boundaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church the risks are so widely scattered that it is almost an impossibility to have a catastrophe loss, which has been proven many times during the years.

SERVICE. By giving our insureds the best for their money at a reasonable cost and mailing out loss drafts on the day the Proof of Loss arrives at the Home Office, has been and will be our ambition in the future.

SAVINGS. Our policyholders have saved thousands of dollars over the years and will continue to do so in the future.
